

IGSM Presents:

*Some Irish Tales
From An American Seanchi*

Author and storyteller David McDonnell will share some of his favorite Irish stories, guaranteed to entertain the Irish and the Irish-at-heart. He'll also speak a wee bit about the history of storytelling and what led to his passion to preserve this almost-lost art.

McDonnell is an accomplished storyteller and historian. He has a vast repertoire of stories and a near encyclopedic recollection of Irish history and culture. He's shared his stories at Irish and Celtic festivals, Irish pubs, libraries, heritage centers, and book stores across North America and Ireland. David's stories draw upon Irish history, culture and folklore, with his vivid imagination and wry sense of humor added to the mix.

Saturday, March 23rd, 2019

1:30 pm Public Welcome

At The Ancient Order of Hibernians
25300 Five Mile Road, Redford 48239

miigsm.org/ or clandonnell.net